It is the same old story—nothing has yet been done by the president or the Congress, though a declaration of war is expected today. This is what the American people seem to want.

A Spanish paper calls the United States "brutal." We are almost inclined to agree with the assumption. If we were otherwise, there would be few Spaniards left to starve Cuba.

The Atkinson Plain Dealer was issued last week by the pupils of the public schools at that place. The first page was embellished by a number of half-tone engravings, and the whole paper was a credit to the schools.

The American Protective Tariff League is working hard to gather prosperity statistics. They will get them, of course, because few people are addressed who are not in sympathy with the movement. This is the secret of favorable-to-republicans statistics of the American Economist.

The Ainsworth Home Rule announces Otto Mutz as its candidate for congress this fall, to succeed Hon. Wm. L. Greene. While Mutz is a pretty able man, but we don't think he is the proper person to send to congress. As between Greene and Mutz, Greene is the better man. Nevertheless, though, is the best man yet named, in our estimation.

It is well to keep out of trouble as much as possible, but The Quiz is really ashamed that this nation has allowed the Spanish atrocities to go on as long as they have down in poor little Cuba. While we were lamenting Armenia's fate and calling Europe to task for permitting Turkey to outrage that defenceless land, we were allowing Cuba to be treated even more savagely by the Spaniards under our very nose. Our help is tardy but it should now be effectual and without halt.—Ord Quiz.

The F. E. & M. V. railroad sends out the information that potatoes grown in Northern Nebraska are superior to those grown in Utah and Colorado, and makes the timely and pertinent suggestions that farmers along the line confine their potato crop to one or two standard varieties in each locality. A carload of potatoes of a single variety brings much better prices than does a carload of mixed potatoes. Merchants should advocate this plan, and use measures looking toward its adoption. It will pay everyone connected with the business, in the long run.

Wasn't that a splendid stab Thurston gave the Wall street crowd? He talked like a sure-enough democrat. Thurston is indeed a democrat at heart, but for so many years he has throated his best impulses at the command of the corporations that seldom has his better self appeared in his political utterances. One cannot read our senator's Cuban speech without remembrance of that prophesy made by Andy Jackson, who, in his famous farewell address, speaking of the bond holders, said: "This organized money power from its secret conclave would indicate the choice of your highest officers and compel you to make war or peace as best suits their own wishes. The forms of your government might for a time stand, but its living spirit would depart from it."—Papillon Times.
